

Timberwood Organics is delighted to deliver the best of its seasonal, organic, fresh produce to our friends at RTP. We will make a total of 23 weekly deliveries to RTP employees approximately beginning the last week of May 2009, and ending the last week of October 2009.

We offer three subscription options. All subscription options can be paid in two-half payments (1/2 at time of subscribing and the balance by July 2009). Each week you will receive a box of seasonal produce that will include a diversity of produce items we grow on our farm. Please see the chart at the right to see what you may receive in your box throughout the season.
