RTI considers adherence to the RTI Code of Conduct as well as strict observance of all applicable U.S. and non U.S. laws and regulations to be not only a legal requirement but more than that, an ethical obligation for all. While performing as an RTI Supplier, Supplier is expected to adopt and comply with these same standards. As a result, this Agreement incorporates by reference, with the same force and effect as if it was given in full text, RTI’s “Code of Conduct.” The applicable standards can be accessed on the RTI website at http://www.rti.org/pubs/CodeConduct.pdf. Upon request, RTI can provide paper copies of these standards. If Supplier has a good faith reason to believe that any violation of the Code of Conduct has been committed by an employee(s) of RTI, Consultant shall report such violation to RTI by calling the RTI's Ethics Helpline toll-free at 1-877-212-7220 or sending an e-mail to Ethics@rti.org.

The Anti-Kickback Act of 1986, as referenced in FAR 52.203-7, is hereby incorporated into this Agreement as a condition of acceptance. If you have reasonable grounds to believe that a violation, as described in paragraph (b) of FAR 52.203-7, may have occurred, you should report this suspected violation to Research Triangle Institute’s Ethics Hotline at 1-877-212-7220 or by sending an e-mail to Ethics@rti.org. Supplier shall at all times comply with the terms of such insurance policies, and all requirements of the insurer under any such insurance policies, except as they may conflict with applicable laws or the Agreement. The limits of coverage under each insurance policy maintained by Supplier shall not be interpreted as limiting the Supplier’s liability and obligations under the Agreement. In addition, Supplier represents and warrants that, it shall maintain insurance and limits as stipulated above and RTI shall be listed as an “additional insured” on the Supplier’s certificate of insurance. At RTI’s request, Supplier shall furnish RTI with a certificate of insurance depicting the insurance requirements set forth in this section. RTI reserves the right at any time to immediately terminate the Agreement, or any portion thereof, if in RTI’s opinion such insurance coverage is inadequate.

9.0 LIABILITY

Supplier shall indemnify, defend and hold RTI and RTI’s Client free and harmless from any losses, damages, liabilities and costs (including, without limitation, legal fees and disbursements), which are attributable to any act or omission of Supplier and/or any of Supplier’s employees, subcontractors, or subcontractors’ employees, and which are in any way connected with or related to the Agreement. Upon such cancellation, Supplier agrees to waive any claim for damages, including loss of anticipated profits on account hereof. However, RTI agrees that Supplier shall be paid an amount which when added to all installments previously paid will equal the sum of all costs properly incurred up to the date of cancellation, plus earned profit on such incurred costs, and any reasonable cost incurred as a result of such cancellation as agreed to between RTI and Supplier. In no event shall such payments be greater than the original Prices. All earned profit shall bear the same relationship to such incurred costs as the profit increment of the purchase price bears to the cost increment of such purchase price.

10.3 Termination for Default

If either party shall be in default of the Agreement and such default shall continue for more than twenty (20) days after notice thereof is given to the party in default, the party not in default shall be entitled to immediately terminate the Agreement upon written notice. The election to terminate shall not be construed to be an election of remedies or a waiver thereof, and the party not in default shall be entitled to each and every other remedy available at law and/or in equity. The failure to object to an act of default shall not be deemed a waiver thereof.

10.4 Bankruptcy

Supplier shall not assign or subcontract any portion of its rights, duties, and/or obligations under the Agreement unless RTI, in its sole discretion, grants Supplier written permission to do so. Notwithstanding any such consent, Supplier shall continue to be fully responsible and liable for full performance of all obligations assumed by it hereunder.

The failure of a party to enforce any provision herein, it shall not constitute a waiver of such provision or the right of such party to enforce such provision and every other provision. The Agreement and any documents incorporated specifically by reference including the Terms represent the entire agreement between the parties and supersede all prior oral or written statements or agreement. The Terms may be amended only by written amendments duly executed by RTI and Supplier.
