

Retirement Savings

RTI believes that all employees should have a vehicle by which to save for a comfortable retirement.

- Highly competitive employer contribution to the RTI Retirement Savings Plan 401(k) once staff members have attained one full year of service in which they work a minimum of 1,000 hours.
- RTI's contributions to employees' 401(k) are not dependent upon employees' own contributions to the 401(k).
- An array of investment funds are available to employees to align with their own individual investment philosophies and strategies.
