Such insurance coverage shall be obtained from companies that are authorized to provide such coverage in accordance with the governing jurisdiction(s). Supplier shall at all times comply with the terms of such insurance policies, and all requirements of the insurer under any such insurance policies, except as they may conflict with applicable laws or the Agreement. The limits of coverage under each insurance policy maintained by Supplier shall not be interpreted as limiting the Supplier's liability and obligations under the Agreement. In addition, Supplier represents and warrants that, it shall maintain insurance and limits as stipulated above and RTI shall be listed as an "additional insured" on the Supplier's certificate of insurance. At RTI's request, Supplier shall furnish RTI with a certificate of insurance depicting the insurance requirements set forth in this section. Upon such cancellation, Supplier agrees to waive any claim for damages, including loss of anticipated profits on account hereof. However, RTI agrees that Supplier shall be paid an amount which when added to all installments previously paid will equal the sum of all costs properly incurred up to the date of cancellation, plus earned profit on such incurred costs, and any reasonable cost incurred as a result of such cancellation as agreed to between RTI and Supplier. In no event shall such payments be greater than the original Prices. All earned profit shall bear the same relationship to such incurred costs as the profit increment of the purchase price bears to the cost increment of such purchase price. Supplier shall provide RTI and RTI's client any supporting information necessary to document the reasonableness of Supplier's termination for convenience claim. RTI and RTI's client reserve the right to verify the amounts of any cost and profit increments claimed by Supplier, through an audit of Supplier's records.

10.3 Termination for Default

If either party shall be in default of the Agreement and such default shall continue for more than twenty (20) days after notice thereof is given to the party in default, the party not in default shall be entitled to immediately terminate the Agreement upon written notice. The election to terminate shall not be construed to be an election of remedies or a waiver thereof, and the party not in default shall be entitled to each and every other remedy available at law and/or in equity. The failure to object to an act of default shall not be deemed a waiver thereof.

10.4 Bankruptcy

If Supplier shall be declared insolvent or bankrupt, or if any assignment of its property shall be made for the benefit of creditors or otherwise, or if its interest herein shall be levied upon under execution or seized by virtue of any writ of any court, or if a petition is filed in any court to declare Supplier bankrupt and not dismissed within sixty (60) days, or if a trustee in bankruptcy, receiver or receiver-manager or similar officer is appointed for Supplier or for any of Supplier's assets, then RTI may, at its option, terminate, without charge, the Agreement or a portion thereof and shall thereupon be free from all liability under the Agreement. The ability of RTI to terminate in such instances shall be subject to the applicable bankruptcy and insolvency statutes.

RTI may, by written order to Supplier, require Supplier to stop all, or any part, of the work called for by the Agreement. The order shall be specifically identified as a stop-work order. Upon receipt of the order, Supplier shall immediately comply with its terms and take all reasonable steps to minimize the incurrence of costs allocable to the work covered by the order during the period of work stoppage. At the expiration of the work stoppage period, RTI shall either terminate in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement or provide notice to Supplier to continue work. In the event notice is given to continue work, Supplier and RTI shall agree on any equitable adjustments to Prices or delivery schedules for Products or Services affected by the work stoppage.

11.0 General

11.1 Assignment and Subcontracts

Supplier shall not assign or subcontract any portion of its rights, duties, and/or obligations under the Agreement unless RTI, in its sole discretion, grants Supplier written permission to do so. Notwithstanding any such consent, Supplier shall continue to be fully responsible and liable for full performance of all obligations assumed by it hereunder.

11.2 Excusable Delays

Neither Party shall be in default because of any failure to perform under the terms of this Agreement if the failure arises from any incident or circumstance beyond the affected Party's control and without the fault or negligence of the affected Party, such as but not limited to the following acts of God or of the public enemy, acts of the Government in either its sovereign or contractual capacity, fires, floods, epidemics, quarantine restrictions, strikes, freight embargoes, and unusually severe weather. In each instance, the failure to perform must be beyond the control and without the fault or negligence of the affected Party. "Default" includes failure to make progress in the work so as to endanger performance. If any such case occurs, the Party claiming relief shall notify the other party in writing of the circumstances causing such delay or failure and provide an estimate of the impact on performance.

11.3 Relationship

Supplier acknowledges that the Agreement may have been issued by RTI under a contract with Client, but does not bind nor purport to bind the Client. In all respects and in the conduct of the work hereunder, Supplier is acting in the capacity of an independent contractor. The execution of the Agreement shall not (a) create the relationship of principal and agent, employer and employee, joint venture, or partnership between RTI and the Supplier; and (b) establish any privity of contract between the Supplier and Client. All communications regarding the Agreement must be directed to RTI and not to the Client. Any dispute arising under this Agreement shall be settled by mutual agreement of the parties. If the parties cannot resolve the dispute amongst themselves within a reasonable time, the parties may, by mutual agreement, settle such dispute by arbitration in accordance with the Rules of the American Arbitration Association in the City of Raleigh, North Carolina, and judgment upon the award rendered by the arbitrators may be entered in any court having jurisdiction. Pending completion of the Agreement or final resolution of a dispute which releases Supplier from performance hereunder, the Supplier shall, at all times, proceed diligently with the performance of the Agreement.

11.4 Interpretation

The Agreement and these Terms shall be construed and interpreted in accordance with the laws of the State of North Carolina, excluding its principles of choice of laws, except as to any provisions hereof which are governed by the laws of the United States of America, as to which such laws of the United States shall govern. If any Term herein is found to be unenforceable in any respect, the validity of the remaining Terms will be unaffected, provided that such unenforceability does not materially affect the parties' rights under Agreement. The failure of a party to enforce any provision herein, it shall not constitute a waiver of such provision or the right of such party to enforce such provision and every other provision. The Agreement and any documents incorporated specifically by reference including the Terms represent the entire agreement between the parties and supersede all prior oral or written statements or agreement. The Terms may be amended only by written amendments duly executed by RTI and Supplier. The Agreement shall inure to the benefit of and be binding upon the parties hereto and their successors and permitted assigns.

11.5 Controlling Language

Although a non-English version has been provided, this Agreement has been executed in the English language, which shall be the binding and controlling language for all matters relating to the meaning or interpretation of this Agreement. Additionally, the Agreement and all notices, communications and submittals between the parties pursuant to the implementation of this Agreement shall be in the English language, unless otherwise directed in writing by RTI. All translation services, to include the physical presence of qualified translators, necessary for written or oral communications shall be provided by Supplier.
