

RTI at the 2016 Health Systems Research Symposium

RTI staff presenters only are listed.

To learn more about our work and speak to our experts, visit Table T in the Marketplace.

Wednesday, November 16
12:30–14:00	Poster # EH-ns88—Continuing the Critical Fight Against Malaria in Guinea in the Midst of the Ebola Epidemic Jean-Luc Taton, Senior Project Manager, West Africa and Madagascar Abstract ID: 985, Screen # 4—Innovative Strategies to Strengthen Health System Resilience and Equity in Nepal’s Fragile State Damodar Adhikari, Deputy Chief of Party, Nepal Health for Life	Exhibition Hall B, Marketplace
Thursday, November 17
12:30–14:00	Poster # GE-ip41—Using Web- and SMS-Based Systems to Improve Human Rights for PLHIV and Key Populations in Ghana Taylor Williamson, Health Governance Specialist	Exhibition Hall B, Marketplace
Friday, November 18
12:30–14:00	Poster # II-lc153—Social Accountability in Frontline Health Service Delivery: Citizen Engagement and Provider Response in Four Indonesian Districts Derick Brinkerhoff, Distinguished Fellow in International Public Management Poster # II-ip87—Looking Towards Incorporating Social Accountability into Family Planning Aaron Mulaki, Senior Technical Advisor Poster # II-lc155—Using Data Quality Assessment to Assess and Improve Neglected Tropical Diseases Data Management Systems in Haiti Alain Javel, IMA World Health, Port au Prince This poster is being presented as part of the ENVISION (www.ntdenvision.org) project, USAID’s flagship NTDs project managed by RTI International. IMA World Health leads implementation of ENVISION in Haiti.	Exhibition Hall B, Marketplace
13:30–15:00	Panel: Role of Governance and Accountability in Improving Health System Performance Derick Brinkerhoff, Moderator	Meeting Room 10